Welcome & Prayer

Singing

Come, let us all unite to sing

Come, let us all unite to sing, God is love.

Let heaven and earth their praises bring, God is love.

Let every soul from sin awake, let every heart sweet music make,
and sing with us for Jesus' sake, for God is love.

Chorus: God is love! God is love! Come, let us all unite to sing that God is love.

O tell to earth's remotest bound, God is love.

In Christ we have redemption found, God is love.

His blood has washed our sins away, his Spirit turned our night to day, and now we can rejoice to say that God is love. Chorus

How happy is our portion here, God is love.

His promises our spirits cheer, God is love.

He is our sun and shield by day, our help, our hope, our strength and stay;
he will be with us all the way, our God is love. Chorus

Days of Elijah

These are the days of Elijah, declaring the Word of the Lord

And these are the days of Your servant Moses, righteousness being restored

And though these are days of great trials, of famine and darkness and sword

Still we are the voice in the desert crying, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord"

Chorus

Behold He comes, riding on the clouds, shining like the sun at the trumpet call

So lift your voice, it's the year of Jubilee and out of Zion's hill salvation comes

And these are the days of Ezekiel, the dry bones becoming as flesh

And these are the days of Your servant David, rebuilding a temple of praise

And these are the days of the harvest, the fields are as white in the world

And we are the laborers in Your vineyard, declaring the Word of the Lord

Chorus

There is no god like Jehovah, there is no god like Jehovah (repeat)

Chorus

Lord, whose love in humble service

Lord, whose love in humble service bore the weight of human need,
who upon the cross, forsaken, worked your mercy's perfect deed;
we, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart, consecrating to your purpose every gift which you impart.

Still your children wander homeless, still the hungry cry for bread.
Still the captives long for freedom, still in grief we mourn our dead.
As you, Lord, in deep compassion, healed the sick and freed the soul, by your Spirit send your power to our world to make it whole.

As we worship, grant us vision, till your love's revealing light in its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight, making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear,
stirring us to ardent service, your abundant life to share.

Scripture: Matthew 9:35-10:23

Announcements

Congregational meeting: Please remain in the parking lot after the end of the worship service today for a brief meeting to vote on an above budget proposal to repair the elevator. Details are in the June newsletter. We will have discussion as best we can and conduct a hand vote from our cars.

Honoring our Special Men: Just as we did for Mother's Day, let's honor the special men in our lives on Father's Day, whether a father, grandfather, uncle, friend, mentor, brother, son or grandson. Send in a memory, a thank you, a note of encouragement, etc, and we'll put them all together for a Father's Day tribute. Pictures are welcome too. Please send them in by June 18. Thanks!

Parking lot drive-in services: While Bucks County remains in the yellow phase, we will continue with drive-in services. Services will be recorded and transcribed, so that those who are not able to attend (or who should still remain at home for health and safety reasons) will have access to the services. Worship Commission asks for patience and grace—this is new territory for us and has the potential for some glitches as we work out new ways to worship.

As we as a congregation continue to discern how we can act to promote racial justice in our nation and community, our first step will be reading together Trouble I've Seen: Changing the Way the Church Views Racism. Ben Rush will be facilitating a Zoom discussion group around the book. If you would like a free copy of the book to participate in the group, just email me and one will be provided for you. Watch this space for more details about the group.

MennoMedia is hosting online Adult Bible Study classes every Wednesday in June at 2:00 pm EST. Church leaders Gordon Matties, Susan Janzen, and Elizabeth Soto will have conversation on the Many Faces of Wisdom as explored in Proverbs. Contact the church office for the link if you are interested in participating.

Peaceful Living needs homemade cotton fabric face masks for individuals and employees. Masks with elastic ear bands are preferred. Please mail or drop off donated masks to Peaceful Living's main office, placed in a zip-lock bag along with your name, address, and phone number or email. For instructions on making masks or more details, email mission@peacefulliving.org.

This week all congregations in Mosaic Mennonite Conference are praying for Salem Mennonite Church. Please pray that they will become unified in Christ, as Jesus builds the church here, and that they love each other and build each other up in Christ.
